Hi all,

The Final SC Draft EIR is now posted to the FTP site for the County's final review. A word and PDF (which includes figures) version of each EIR section and each appendix is provided. Directions for accessing the FTP site are attached.

Please note that the documents are formatted as requested for public review. However, to facilitate the County's review, we did not break each file into 5MB sections, as we will for the PR draft submittal. Please advise us if there are any other formatting items that do not meet the County requirements.

Thanks,
Megan
